July Commentary

The Fund produced a return of +2.0% during the month compared to a return of +0.5% for the FTSE All-Share Index (TR).

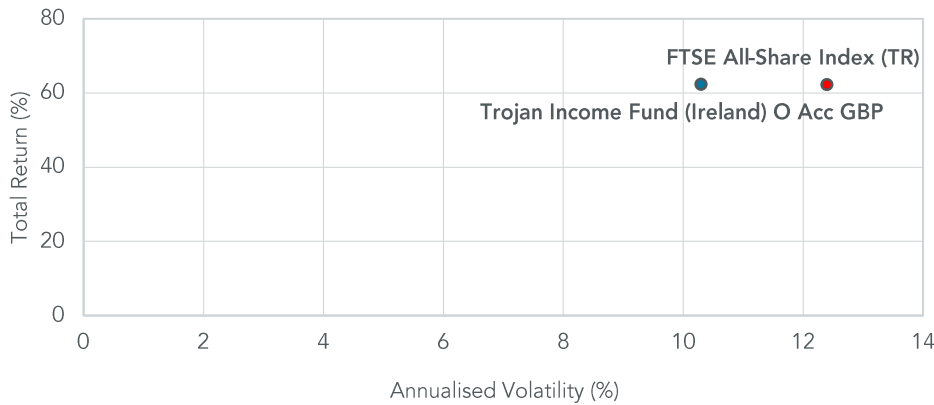

July brought a flurry of UK corporate news. The rebound in sentiment and perceived low valuations in the UK market have led to more than double the number of Merger & Acquisition ("M&A") deals announced in Q2 2021 vs the same period last year. According to the Bloomberg database, more than 1,000 M&A or other investment announcements involving UK companies have been recorded in each of the quarters from Q4 2020 to Q2 2021 – the first time a quarterly count has breached four figures. August shows no signs of a slowdown, with Meggitt plc the latest UK stalwart to be poached from 'across the pond', ending more than three decades in the UK market.

So far, your Fund has not been caught up in this hive of activity. We often find the acquisition of current holdings bittersweet – while a large premium feels good in the short term, the loss of a quality UK asset, especially to an overseas market, can be disappointing on a longer view. We are pleased that the world-class engineering business Renishaw plc may be staying UK-listed for now, and hold out a slim hope that ARM Ltd, one of the UK's finest home-grown technology companies, may yet return to the London Stock Exchange. The UK government looks to be taking a keener interest in major deals, with talk of more intervention amid the current bout.

July also brought a flood of earnings reports, with ~70% of holdings providing an update. In aggregate, operational performance has been remarkably strong. RELX plc is a good microcosm of broader trends witnessed in the past year. Its exhibitions/trade show business remain heavily impacted by low global mobility, but the majority of its business, focussing on software, data, and analytics across areas such as scientific research, insurance, fraud & identity, and law, has seen sustained or even enhanced demand as digitisation surges forward. The market feels the positives outweigh the negatives, with RELX shares hitting all-time highs.
