August Commentary

Your Fund returned -1.1% during the month compared to -2.5% for the FTSE All-Share Index (TR). August was a soft month for equities, with the S&P 500 also declining for a second consecutive month amidst mixed economic data and volatile government bond yields. Every sector in the FTSE All-Share saw a negative return except for Energy, which benefited from rising oil prices. Your Fund's outperformance was driven by beneficial stock selection, with Domino's Pizza gaining +14.6% and Admiral Group shares rising +17%.

It was pleasing to see Admiral report reassuring results, once again demonstrating its ability to navigate volatile motor insurance cycles better than peers. The business has managed to protect profitability in a tough environment by proactively raising prices early to account for the material claims inflation that the industry has suffered post-COVID lockdowns. With signs of normalisation emerging and pain being felt by peers, Admiral should be in a strong position to gain market share heading into the second half of 2023 and beyond.

We made limited changes to the portfolio in the month, although we did take advantage of share price weakness to add to certain holdings including Bunzl and Experian. Sentiment towards UK equities remains soft but valuations, more importantly, are particularly attractive to us. We will continue to look through the short-term noise and invest in attractively valued high-quality, resilient companies that generate cash and grow their dividends.
