The Fund was originally launched as the Trojan Capital Fund, which focused on investing in UK equities with the flexibility to invest in overseas equities and other asset classes. The strategy was changed to a global equity strategy in December 2013. The Fund has been a constituent of the IA Global sector since April 2012. Prior to this, the Fund was in the IA Flexible Investment sector. Source: Lipper

December Commentary

Your Fund returned +4.6% during the month compared to +4.2% for the MSCI World Index NR (£). For the quarter, the Fund returned +7.8% and over 2023 it gained +23.9%. Both quarterly and annual results are well ahead of the benchmark comparator.

The Fund's top five contributors to annual returns were Meta Platforms ('Meta'), Alphabet, Microsoft, Adobe, and Booking Holdings. Most of these were large detractors to the Fund's returns last year and so we are glad to have persevered. Whilst much has been made of the global stock market's narrow leadership, the Fund's large US technology companies are by no means the only driver of returns. 18 of the Fund's 28 holdings made gains greater than +15% in 2023.

Detractors to returns were relatively few and their impact, though frustrating, was manageable. Several of the Fund's traditionally more defensive companies fell out of favour. The bottom five contributors to annual returns were Diageo, Roche, PayPal, Becton Dickinson, and Unilever.

The Fund's turnover of 15% for the year is low compared to peers but is higher than the Fund's annual average of 9%. We added the London Stock Exchange Group in January 2023 and RELX later in the summer. We also added to existing holdings in Agilent Technologies, Diageo, Heineken and Roche. There were no outright sales beyond the immediate disposal of a small number of Sandoz shares inherited when they spun out of Novartis in October. Investments in Adobe, Alphabet, Intuit, Meta, Microsoft, and Moody's were reduced.

This Factsheet marks 10 years since the launch of the strategy. Over this time the Fund has added value by returning +217% (net of fees) compared to +197% for the MSCI World Index NR (£). We believe this is a direct result of long-term ownership of a select group of world-class companies. It also reflects a willingness to adapt to changing circumstances and to seek to enhance the Fund's profile. Its companies enjoy materially higher financial productivity and greater growth potential than in the past – an improvement achieved without compromising our commitment to carefully manage valuations. We think this sets the Fund up well for the coming year and beyond.
