December Commentary

Your Fund returned +0.5% during the month compared to +1.8% for the MSCI World Index NR (£).

The Fund finished the year +13.5%, which compares to +12.3% for the MSCI World NR (£). In a year like no other, the Fund's return was once again driven by a broad number of U.S. technology companies spread across software (Microsoft and Intuit), internet (Alphabet, Facebook and eBay) and payments (PayPal and Mastercard). Detractors to returns included companies most impacted by economic shutdowns necessitated by the pandemic (Becton Dickinson, American Express and Heineken Holding)

This was a busier year in terms of transactions as we sought to focus the portfolio where we have greatest conviction. One new company to enter the Fund in 2020 was the financial information and analytics business, S&P Global. Coca Cola, Procter & Gamble and Wells Fargo were sold in the first few months of the year. The Fund also completed its exit from the tobacco sector with the sale of Altria, British American Tobacco and Philip Morris International. As a consequence of this activity, the portfolio has become more concentrated. It ended the year with 27 holdings and 55% of assets invested in the top 10.

The out-turn for the year belies the drama to get there and the underlying economic shifts that have occurred along the way. Paramount among these are the radical digitisation of commerce and the growing share of GDP enabled by the internet. At the same time, many of the Fund's long-held companies have had to weather previously unthinkable cuts to revenues. We are encouraged by how well both Troy's team and our portfolio of companies have performed thus far. We remain alert and open-minded about the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead.
