March Commentary

Your Fund returned +4.6% during the month compared to +3.4% for the MSCI World Index NR (£), and over the first quarter of the year, the Fund has returned +11.4%, which compares to +9.9% for the index.

Whilst the Fund's Q1 returns were led by US technology businesses (PayPal, Microsoft, eBay, Visa, Intuit), the overall performance was broadly based, with important contributions from the Swiss pharmaceutical companies, Novartis and Roche, and several of the Fund's European multi-national consumer staples businesses (BAT, Heineken, Nestlé). There were no major detractors to absolute returns. Coca-Cola, Medtronic and Booking Holdings were down modestly in the quarter after they reported financial results that were marginally disappointing.

We continue to gently rebalance the portfolio by investing selectively as capital flows into the Fund. We added to existing holdings in Alphabet, Booking Holdings, Reckitt Benckiser, Medtronic and Unilever, in all cases taking advantage of what we believe to be attractive valuations for these businesses. There were no new entrants into the portfolio and no exits.

Despite the recent strong recovery in global asset prices, our attitude and approach is unchanged. We remain concerned about the outlook for the global economy, the fragility of capital markets and the scarcity of bargains to be had in the sorts of companies we prefer. At the same time, we are encouraged by the fundamental strength of the businesses contained in the portfolio and we believe this tight collection of world-class companies has favourable prospects for long-term growth.
